Finally, the children Wrap-Up their worship experience with a time of review.

4 In what types of settings can Worship KidStyle be used?

Worship KidStyle was developed to be versatile and flexible. Whether your group has eight children or eighty-eight children, uses a large group only format, or desires to have small group time, Worship KidStyle can fill the bill. You can lead children to worship in rooms designed specifically for children's worship or in more traditional classrooms. For churches desiring to utilize the large group only format, all that is needed is a room large enough for the number of children and leaders in your ministry. For churches utilizing large and small groups, breakout rooms or areas around the large group space are necessary. Also, Worship KidStyle is a great resource to use on Sunday mornings or evenings for Children's Worship or on Wednesday evenings for special children's ministries.

5 How many leaders are needed for Worship KidStyle?

The number of leaders necessary for Worship KidStyle depends on the number of children in your ministry. The large group aspect of Worship KidStyle is designed to be led by one individual, while additional adults participate with the children. You might choose to enlist someone to lead all the music, and an additional individual to lead the other aspects of worship.

For small groups, one leader is needed for each small group. There are four small group options to select from each week. Depending on the number of choices, you would need to enlist the appropriate number of leaders.

10 Kindergartners and school-age children meet together for children's worship at my church. What edition of Worship KidStyle should I use?

If creating a separate worship time for kindergartners or older preschoolers and kindergartners is not an option, the best curriculum choice is Worship KidStyle: Children's Edition. During "Introduction to Worship," consider grouping kindergartners separately or only with first graders. During "Worship," enlist adults who will sit specifically with kindergartners and help them use their Bibles and the "Younger Children" learner guides. If "Application Activities" are part of your worship time, you may want to group all the children by age-group and/or grade. Finally, for "Wrap Up" make sure that there are enough adults to purposely guide kindergartners.
